Doctoral dissertation

Title of thesis
Capital Investment and Economic Growth in developing Countries
Progress on the doctoral dissertation
Synopsis: The work will examine if there is a positive (or any) link between capital expenditure and economic growth in general and in developing countries in particular. A part of the research will focus on capital expenditure and its effect on economic growth in developing resource-rich countries. The dissertation will be a quantitative research, based mainly on the analysis of pooled cross-sectional and panel data sourced from the IMF Government Finance Statistics (GFS) and the World Bank Open Budgets Portal for developing countries. The research will provide important insights into the expenditure policy and its impact on economic growth in developing countries with the additional value brought by the analysis of the capital investment policy in resource-rich developing countries. Taking into account the volume of foreign aid and concessional loans, flowing into developing countries, this research will enhance our understanding of practicability and sustainability of the capital investment projects and the capacity of host governments to maintain them. The policy implications will be useful not only for the governments, but also for international organisations and banks, providing financial and technical support for development. Using more detailed and updated data, this research has the potential to provide evidence-based recommendations for policy-makers and international development stakeholders. Form and scope of the dissertation: The dissertation will have between 100 and 200 standard pages. Time schedule of progress on the dissertation: 1st year of study: Work on the first dissertation article with an expected title "Government expenditure composition and economic growth in developing countries". 2nd year of study: Work on the second dissertation article with an expected title "Public investment programs and growth in developing countries". 3rd year of study: Completion of the dissertation with the third article, "Public investment and economic growth in resource-rich developing countries". 4th year of study: Finishing, Pre-defense, and Defense of the dissertation.

Duties specific for the field of study

Publications and other study obligations required for admission to the state doctoral examination:

By the end of the 3rd year I enroll for the state doctoral exam (SDE) so that I pass the SDE not later than by the end of the 4th year. Not later than two months before the SDE I deliver all materials demonstrating compliance with the conditions for admission to the SDE. These conditions are:

- Having published or accepted for publication one scientific article (in that case I attach the postprint or a well verifiable confirmation of acceptance for publication) in a scientific journal included in the Scopus database (or in a journal with a nonzero impact factor from SSCI, SCI databases) and at least one scientific article in a series of at least IES Working Papers Series quality (in that case I submit a request to the chairman of the Doctoral Council for consideration). An alternative condition for publication duty is one research article published or accepted for publication in a scientific journal with a score of at least "B" according to the internal methodology of measuring the quality of scientific journals at IES FSV UK (see Director's Measure 1/2016 "Research" and the document Journal Evaluation at IES FSV UK). Only articles accepted for publication when the student studies the PhD at the IES will fulfil this condition. All articles must be affiliated to IES FSV UK. Only articles in Economics, Finance and closely related fields will be accepted.

- One successful grant activity as the principal investigator or two unsuccessful grant activities in the framework of the GA UK grant competition (i.e. according to the rules set by the Doctoral Council).

- Four semesters of completed doctoral seminars.

- Four "Teaching Assistantships" (TA) in at least two different classes.

- Completion of a methodology teaching seminar for doctoral students.

- Fulfillment of the special requirements of the Doctoral Council (if there are any).

Publication and study obligations required for admission to the defense:

At the time of submission of my application to the pre-defense and defense I commit myself to have:

- Passed the state doctoral examination.

- One research article published or accepted for publication in a scientific journal with a score of at least "B" according to the internal methodology for measuring the quality of scientific journals at IES FSV UK (see Director's Measure 1/2016 "Research" and Journal Evaluation at IES FSV UK). Alternatively, at least two articles published or accepted for publication in scientific journals included in the Scopus database or in scientific journals with non-zero impact factor from the SSCI and SCI databases. These articles do not have to be part of the dissertation thesis. Only articles accepted for publication when the student studies the PhD at the IES will fulfil this condition. All articles must be affiliated to IES FSV UK. Only articles in Economics, Finance and closely related fields will be accepted.

- Eight "Teaching Assistantships" (TAs) in at least two different classes.

At the time of submission of my application to the pre-defense, I commit myself to have the dissertation thesis at least in the following form:

- At least one dissertation article is fully finished (the supervisor approved the final version as a dissertation chapter), the second article is almost finished (the student processed the last supervisor's comments and awaits its approval) and the third article is elaborated. The elaborated article has at least a clear structure, methodology, goal of the research and a significant work has already been done.

BT and MT opponency: Throughout the entire duration of my study I will serve as an opponent of Bachelor's and Master's theses.

Methodology teaching seminar for PhD students:

I will participate at a methodology teaching seminar for first year PhD students during the 1st year. If the seminar was not attended within the course of the first year, I will attend the seminar during the 2nd year.

Defenses:

I commit myself to attend doctoral defenses with the minimum average attendance of 50% during the whole period of my study. In each academic year I visit at least 50% of the defenses. I am aware that participation at defenses of less than 50% may lead to a reduction of my evaluation by the Doctoral council at the end of each academic year.

Study documents: Till May 31 of each academic year, I deliver my "Annual assessment of fulfilling the ISP" + "Supplement", in which I further specify the intended course of my doctoral studies in the next academic year. In case of terminating my study interruption I will fill in the required documents ("Annual assessment of fulfilling the ISP" + "Supplement" for the next academic year) within a month from the end of my study interruption period.

Obligations in case of a study stay:

In case of a study visit/stay, I will apologize in advance to the coordinator of dissertation defenses so that my absence could be excused. I will also in advance send a request to the Doctoral Council for possible consideration of study requirements, which I plan to fulfil during my visit/stay.
