

ČSOB: Junior Consultant in Strategy and Development department

The company: ČSOB Group

- Is a leading financial services provider in the Czech Republic serving all customer segments with full range of products through the widest distribution network
- Operates in the market under several brands (ČSOB, Poštovní spořitelna, Hypoteční banka, ČMSS) and sub-brands
- Is a member of KBC Group, an integrated banc-assurer focusing on Belgium and CEE

The role: Junior Consultant in Strategy and Development department

- Works as a member of strategy team on projects in two key areas:
 - Development of ČSOB Group strategy (and its transformational/performance agenda), including translation of the strategy into practical business objectives and initiatives
 - Strategies for individual business/support units (in close co-operation their managers)

Candidate's profile

- Has the potential to develop versatile (functional and industry) thought-leadership, in particular he/she is able to structure complex problems and handle ambiguity, has strong quantitative and reasoning skills
- Is a crisp communicator, both verbally and in writing (Czech and English)
- Displays adequate seniority for the position to interact with senior management, is persistent, has strong drive and always pushes the boundaries
- Is client-oriented and strong collaborator
- Is eager to learn

Candidate's qualification

- University degree with strong academic record (advanced degree a plus)
- Substantial extra-curricular activities, study abroad a plus
- Work experience (incl. internships), experience in strategic consulting/project-based assignments and/or financial industry a plus
- Fluent Czech and English