

WOOD & Company Financial Services, a.s., a leading independent investment bank in Central & Eastern Europe is looking for a new part-time colleague to its investment banking team in Prague headquarters for the position:

RESEARCH ANALYST IN INVESTMENT BANKING

Responsibilities

- Conducting independent company/industry/investor research for multiple projects in various information databases (e.g. Bloomberg, Bisnote MagnusWeb, Mergermarket);
- Preparation of presentations of conducted research and other;
- Communicating with foreign members of a global alliance of M&A specialists;
- Analyzing financial statements;
- Ad-hoc tasks.

Requirements

- University student of Economics up to 3 years prior to Masters's degree completion;
- Team player with good communication skills and ability to think analytically and solve effectively various tasks on an ad-hoc basis;
- Good computer literacy – especially MS Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint);
- Native Czech/Slovak speaker with fluency in English (both written and spoken);
- Highly independent and proactive approach to problem solving.

Meet WOOD & Co & your future team

- WOOD & Co is a leading investment bank with the main business lines including M&A, Equities Brokerage and Asset Management;
- More than 250 employees in 6 geographic locations (Prague, London, Warsaw, Bratislava, Milan, Bucharest); Prague Investment Banking team currently comprising 10 professionals.

We offer

- Part-time position with flexible working hours (approx. 16 hours per week);
- Great opportunity for professional and personal development;
- The possibility of future cooperation as an Analyst;
- Welcoming international environment.

Start day: immediately/upon agreement

Are you interested in the position? Send your CV and cover letter in English to: HR@wood.cz

