Value Investing Internship

Why should you join us?

You will gain a real investment experience by combining your academic knowledge with our hands-on investment practices in family-office inspired by Value Investing and Warren Buffett himself.

You will get a comprehensive framework of how to identify and find outstanding businesses, help the investment team in daily execution tasks, and build your knowledge of best value investing know-how out there. Remuneration will cover your costs.

Who are we looking for?

Ideally 3rd year of college or above, whereby financial accounting and corporate finance knowledge is a must.

What should you do for it?

Prepare a case study, in which you will choose a private or public company, which is (based on your rigorous analysis) appropriate investment opportunity to submit to Investment Committee of Odyssey 44 (the case study has to fulfill our investment profile).

You will ideally find and analyze:

- local company with global ambition
- rather growth story than cash cow (defensive asset)
- strong historic financial track-record
- out-side of technology and heavy industry (CapEx) segment
- Equity Value in the range of EUR 20-100 mio

Odyssey 44, a.s.

Slovanský dům, Na Příkopě 22 110 00 Prague 1 | Czech Republic | +420 225 994 994 | www.odyssey44.com

The ultimate goal of your case study is to find and analyze a great company and explain why it is a great company. You want the core of your case study is explanation “why”, while the potential valuation is secondary. Your case study should be no more than 5 word pages.

Beside that you will send your resume and cover letter, in which you will explain why you are the right and only one to get the internship chance.

... and when?

Submit your full package (i.e. case study, resume, cover letter) by 3rd June 2018. Personal presentation of your investment opportunity will take place in June 2018.

Assumed internship should be June - September 2018, everything else depends on discussion.

Are you ready?

Every candidate willing to submit her/his application can contact us at internship@odyssey44.com for further guidance regarding the investment analysis.
