

Call for applications: UNCE Doctoral Fellowships

Institute of Economic Studies calls for applications for 2-4 UNCE Doctoral Fellowships. The length of the fellowship is 18 months (07/2021-12/2022). The fellowship will support research on topics with a potential for high-quality publication in the fields of economics and finance. Only PhD candidates currently enrolled at the Institute are eligible for a fellowship.

Applications must include:

- A brief project proposal with clearly specified outcomes, either a paper (or papers) ready for submission, or work-in-progress suitable for presentation at important conferences and workshops,
- CV,
- List of publications,
- List of work-in-progress publications (for each paper, include information about past and upcoming presentations at the conferences and seminars, a rough date of expected submission, and your submission tree),
- Date of planned state doctoral examination and dissertation defense,
- Whether a long-term visit abroad is planned during the fellowship.

The Committee will assess the potential of the proposal and the feasibility of the objectives set.

Main formal requirement: To be currently enrolled in the PhD at the IES FSV UK.

Deadline: May 31, 2021.

Questions and applications shall be send to Jaromír Baxa (jaromir.baxa@fsv.cuni.cz).
